

A RESPONSE TO: "Cruise Bonanza", 4th June 2024

Cruise Bonanza

"Tiddled over" made me laugh when I first read it and smile fondly the second.

[ship is ugly] -- behemoth

This paragraph is so funny! The not aesthetically pleasing font change, the petri dish, the "as is typical". I love you! ♥

The pass is more interesting & much prettier] -- focus

I know people who have cruised (even who cruise!) and they are nice. But I hate cruises & I hate the people on them (I'm told I'd change my mind on one, I doubt it).

I'm sure the cows are similarly surprised (and potentially intrigued) by the presence of so many humans.

[have never seen a more hideous welcome sign, thankful the photo had other things to look at]

-- ugly

[Orbital has so many buildings! I love the green!]

-- green

Another chuckle worthy paragraph.

[so pretty! I love how many things I want to look at] -- bay

Cows

I am i

[where is this taken from? I love it! Reminds me of a photo

I took in Ireland] -- window

Inexorably is a really good word.

[seemingly, you are no longer intriguing & interesting, hopefully you have not been replaced by a cruite enjoyer] -- cows (3)

[the sky here is incredible!] -- tri

[I was wrong!] -- returned

[this is such a great photo] -- 464

The all caps here is so so funny! Really enjoyed reading & seeing that! ☺

Cows are surprisingly ~~loudly~~ silent! It is always a jolt when they moo loudly. And it is very surprising for their size.

Words

This is the section I had to reread when I first skimmed over. Thought it said something about kinky sex with the cows. Anyway...

This is, on close reading, an incredible paragraph. One might even say, a work of art. I'll ~~omit~~ dramatization for the joke, but truly so funny. Wow.

☺ Love you (lots!)

[creatures??? They deserve more than that!!!] -- sheep

Friends

I hope these cows stay there long enough for you do not see them sold. But if they do, perhaps the firm/ dommo towards vegetarianism.

Closing Pictures

Would love to know how long you were in fact taking photos of the turbine.

[truly no better turbine photo. The colours!] -- turbine

[the light on the land in distance (on right) is so very nice] -- sail

[Inbbit!!!! ♥] -- rabbit

I love the ending of this post, made me very very happy. I like sharing things with you and you taking an active role in enjoying them.

My Own Thoughts

I was going to write about the following in "Cows", but when I got to this section, I forgot. So here goes! On my famous November Peebles walk, in the end section we had to walk through a field full of sleeping(?) cows, in the dark. For some reason, this was particularly scary. They were relatively close to us and deadily quiet. I remember walking quickly through ~~while~~ ^{while} trying to be quiet and not look at them. I survived. (It was actually perfectly fine.)

I really enjoy the Beef & Diny references!
I'm excited to see all those things live.

Much love!

iSabells! ♥
